MSBL / MABL World Series Spotlight on

John Berryman

(35+ WB Cactus OC Sox)

If John Berryman is playing on your team, you might as well just pencil him in the lineup everyday. With over 500 games played, he has never missed a game due to injury. He remembers the story of Wally Pipp of the Yankees, who sat out one day with a headache and lost his place in the lineup permanently to a young man named Lou Gehrig.

A regular with the OC Sox in the SoCal MSBL since 1996, John's team has won the Palm Springs Classic in 2008, 2010, and 2012. They were 35+ Mountain Runner Up at the World Series in 2005. For those 11 straight years attending Arizona and Palm Springs, the Sox enjoy their entire league team participating and hanging together in the environment that could only be described as baseball heaven. Married for 25 years to Jeannie has been it's own reward, as she leaves the baseball enjoyment up to John. She has probably only made it to three games, but recognizes the value he sees in being such a committed teammate. Among the many favorite moments through over a decade of baseball trips, John shares how his buddy Ron "Freight Train" Terrell explained to Lee Frankel how great pitching will always beat great hitting. Of course, he had just struck out against the worst pitcher they had ever seen! Can't beat baseball for creating lasting memories.

35+ WB Central Clancy's Irish players celebrate as Greg Davis slides across the plate with the winning run in the bottom of the 9th for a 10-9 (come from behind) win over Des Moines.

In addition each team manager has the opportunity to input his teams roster and player stats on their own individual page on the MSBL / MABL national website. Players can also upload their own world series photos by using the following URL, and following the directions.
